

Environmental & Agricultural Concepts Level 3 Quiz – Answer Key

1) What is the main purpose of a greenhouse?

Select one:

- a) To trap rainwater
- b) To control the environment for plants to grow better
- c) To store gardening tools
- d) To decorate the garden

2) What process allows heat to stay trapped inside a greenhouse?

Select one:

- a) Photosynthesis
- b) Greenhouse effect
- c) Evaporation
- d) Condensation

3) Which of the following is NOT a type of greenhouse?

Select one:

- a) Glass greenhouse
- b) Plastic greenhouse
- c) Stone greenhouse
- d) High-tech greenhouse

4) What is one benefit of using a greenhouse?

Select one:

- a) It reduces the need for sunlight.
- b) It allows plants to grow year-round, even in winter.
- c) It eliminates the need for soil.
- d) It stops plants from needing water.

5) Where is the biggest greenhouse in the world located?

Select one:

- a) United States
- b) England
- c) Canada
- d) Australia

6) Greenhouses are only used for growing flowers.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False

7) Plastic greenhouses are lighter and cheaper than glass greenhouses.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False

8) Greenhouses can protect plants from pests, bad weather, and diseases.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False

9) Scientists do not use greenhouses for studying plants.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False

10) You can create a mini greenhouse using a plastic bottle or clear box.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False