

Transportation Level 2 Quiz

1) Moving something from one location to another is called _____.

Select one:

- a) Managing
- b) Evaluating
- c) Marketing
- d) Transportation

2) Which of the following people are responsible for transportation?

Select one:

- a) Truck drivers, train conductors, pilots
- b) People who make cars, trains, and planes
- c) People who build roads, railroads, and airports
- d) People who make fuel
- e) All of these people are responsible for transportation

3) Identify whether each of the following examples of regulations helps or hinders transportation:

Circle the correct response:

- | | | |
|--|-------|---------|
| • Inspecting a vehicle slows down transportation | Helps | Hinders |
| • Speed limits slow down transportation | Helps | Hinders |
| • Speed limits help save lives | Helps | Hinders |
| • Inspecting a vehicle to make sure it's not pumping out dangerous gases | Helps | Hinders |

4) Speed limits are examples of _____ regulations on transportations.

Select one:

- a) external
- b) internal

5) How things are made or built are examples of _____ regulations on transportation.

Select one:

- a) internal
- b) external

6) Match the following subsystems with their descriptions:

- | | |
|---|------------|
| • Energy source, energy converter, and power transmitter to move a vehicle | Support |
| • Receives information from the guidance system to determine vehicle changes | Structural |
| • Provides safety and efficiency; includes features such as antilock brakes, traction control, seat belts, and air conditioning | Propulsion |
| • Framework or body of a vehicle that keeps everything in its place | Suspension |
| • Provides information to the operator; includes fuel gauge, speedometer, and check engine light | Control |
| • Associates a vehicle with its environment; includes tires, tools the engine uses to move the vehicle forward, and springs | Guidance |

7) Match the following transportation processes with their descriptions:

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| • Keep items ready for the short term until the next step is ready | Receiving |
| • Take in goods and process them in preparation for another step | Managing |
| • Making relevant information available | Holding |
| • Keep tracked items ready for the long term | Communicating |

8) Match the following transportation processes with their descriptions:

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| • Keeping track of and controlling goods or services | Evaluating |
| • Promoting a good or service | Marketing |
| • Measuring the worth of a product | Communicating |
| • Making relevant information available | Managing |

9) Which of the following does NOT describe conventions in transportation?

Select one:

- a) Changes depending on the person completing the task
- b) Makes things go faster because it can be done with little thinking
- c) Standard across all locations
- d) A specific and efficient way of doing something

10) A typical product is rarely touched more than once while being transported to its final destination.

Select one:

- a) True
- b) False